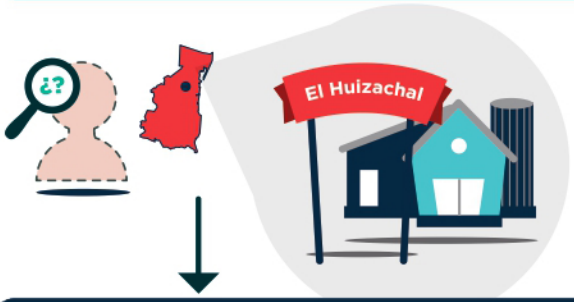
OUR CASES

1. MASSACRE OF 72 MIGRANTS in San Fernando, Tamaulipas, México

On August 24th 2010, the Navy reported the finding of 72 bodies that belonged to migrants in the ranch "El Huizachal", located in San Fernando, Tamaulipas.



The events were attributed to organized crime.The motive of the massacre is still uncertain. Out of the 72 victims, 63 have been identified and 7 exhumations are required (in Guatemala and Brazil) to confirm their identification.

20,000 kidnappings of migrants

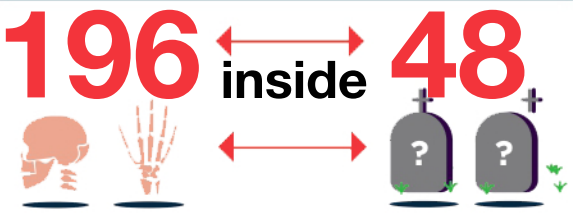
The National Human Rights Commission documented nearly 20,000 kidnappings of migraine persons, in two different 6-month periods (2009 and 2011). In some cases there were reports of the participation and collaboration of State agents in the kidnappings.

THE MEXICAN STATE WAS AWARE OF THE RISK THE MIGRANT POPULATION WAS IN BEFORE THE MASSACRE OCCURRED.

2. CLANDESTINE MASS GRAVES in San Fernando, Tamaulipas, México

In April 2011 48 mass graves were discovered with 196 bodies inside – most of the victims were migrants –, in San Fernando, Tamaulipas.



There was confirmation that municipality policemen were involved in the events..

3. MASSACRE OF GÜÉMEZ, in Tamaulipas, México

In September 2015, the army reported a clandestine mass grave with 16 bodies (10 Guatemalan citizens, 3 Honduran citizens and 3 other unidentified).

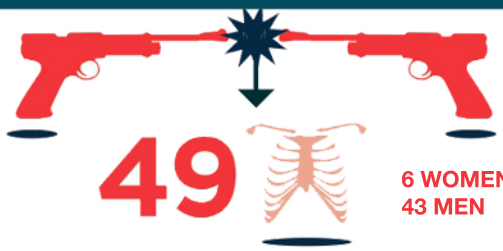
THE LAST TIME THEY MADE CONTACT WITH THEIR RELATIVES WAS FROM CIUDAD VICTORIA.

FUNDACIÓN PARA LA JUSTICIA

@FJEDD

4. MASSACRE OF CADEREYTA in Nuevo León, México

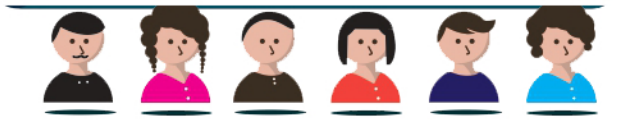
In May 2012, the Federal Police and Army reported the finding of 49 torsos in Cadereyta, Nuevo León. Without carrying out any investigation, local authorities declared that the massacre had not involved the civilian population and had been the result of a settling of scores, criminalizing the victims.



49

6 WOMEN AND 43 MEN

Only 19 victims have been identified, none of them women. Currently there are no sentenced parties for the events.



4 MÉXICO

12 HONDURAS

2 NICARAGUA

1 GUATEMALA

The families of Honduras, after recovering the remains, bravely and admirably have organized a family committee called Cofamicenh and now support other families with missing in the region.

5. DISAPPEARED IN SAN LUIS DE LA PAZ, Guanajuato, México

On March 21st 2011, a group of over 22 migrant persons set off from the community of San Luis de la Paz in Guanajuato, bound to the United States of America.

22

Since they set off there has been no communication with the relatives. One of the victims was located inside the San Fernando Clandestine Mass Graves. But nothing is known of the rest.

6. MASSACRE OF CAMARGO, in Tamaulipas, México

On January 23rd 2021, authorities reported the finding of 19 burned bodies in two vehicles, in Camargo, Tamaulipas. According to facts, there are 12 state policemen involved.

19

12

All victims have been identified. They were 16 Guatemaltecan citizens, one Salvadoran citizen and two more Mexicans citizens.